

TAX FILING FORMS FOR HEALTH INSURANCE

FORM 1099-HC (REQUIRED FOR MASS. STATE TAX RETURN)

Form 1099-HC is needed to complete your MA state tax return. This form serves as proof of health insurance coverage for Massachusetts residents age 18 and older. Your 2021 Form 1099-HC will be mailed to you by your health insurance carrier by January 31st, 2022. If you had a mid-year carrier change, you would need the form from both carriers to file your taxes (e.g., moved from HPHC to BCBS effective 7/1/21).

Note: This proof of coverage is REQUIRED for your Massachusetts state income tax filing. The Health Benefits & Insurance office does not have access to print this form on behalf of employees.

FORM 1095-C (REFERENCE DOCUMENT ONLY)

Form 1095-C is an informational document for your federal tax return and should be kept with your tax papers as it is evidence that you had health insurance. It only serves as proof of qualified health insurance coverage (referred to as minimum essential coverage).

Note: This proof of coverage is NOT required for your income tax filing. Your 2021 Form 1095-C will be available to you on Employee Self-Service and mailed by the City of Boston by March 2nd, 2022.
